Summer School disclaimer:

Cancellation or Modification of the School due to Force Majeur

In case of force majeure, the ESPE Summer School has the right to alter or cancel the ESPE Summer School without prior notice, however a notice of the occurrence shall be given by the ESPE Summer School as soon as reasonably possible. Force majeure shall mean any circumstance beyond the reasonable control of the ESPE Summer School which prevents or impedes the holding of the ESPE Summer School including, but not limited to, government action, war or hostilities, riot or civil commotion, plague or other epidemic such as SARS, bird flu, earthquake, flood, hurricane, cyclone, fire or other natural physical disaster, explosion, accident or breakdown, strike, lack of the usual means of transportation or terrorism. The ESPE Summer School shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental or consequential damages, losses, expenditures or any other inconveniences or costs caused by such modification or cancellation of the school.

Disclaimer/Liability

ESPE cannot accept liability for injuries or losses of whatever nature incurred by participants, nor loss of or damage to their luggage and/or personal belongings. Please check the validity of your own travel insurance. All reasonable endeavours will be made to hold the ESPE Summer School and to present its program as scheduled under circumstances which assure the comfort and safety of all participants. However, neither the ESPE Summer School nor its committees, representatives or agents, shall be held liable by any person as a result of the cancellation of the ESPE Summer School or of any of the arrangements, programs or plans connected therewith, or for any injury, damage or inconvenience which may be suffered by any person while travelling to or from, or during such person's presence in connection with this ESPE activity. Participants are fully liable for damages caused to third parties and property.

Travel Insurance

A travel insurance policy to cover theft, loss and medical problems is recommended. The ESPE Summer School will not be held liable for illness, accidents or thefts suffered by Participants during the ESPE Summer School or their stay before or after the meeting.

Deadline: 8th February 2019. Applicants will be notified by mid April 2019.

The ESPE summer school budget will cover all expenses with the exception of travel costs. As an applicant, you are therefore encouraged to submit an abstract to the ESPE Scientific Meeting and when applying for a travel grant you should indicate that you have applied to ESPE Summer School. The list of ESPE Summer School participants will be communicated to the committee in charge of travel grants. Those applicants who receive part of their travel expenses from other sources should check with ESPE if they qualify for a travel grant.
